R. G. O'Brien
Chief Clerk.

Mr. Bradshaw from the Committee on Rules and Orders reported the following rules which were adopted:

Duties and powers [Rules and Orders] of the President.

1. The President shall take the Chair in the hour to which the Council shall have adjourned; shall call the members to order, and on the appearance of a quorum; shall cause the Journal of the preceding day to be read.

2. He shall preserve decorum and order; may speak to points of order in preference to other members; shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Council.

on motion regularly seconded, and may vote in all cases.

3. He shall declare all votes, but if any member doubt the vote, the President shall order a return of the Council, with the number voting for and against, and declare the result.

4. He shall rise to put a question or to address the Council, but may read sitting.

5. When the Council shall determine it go into a Committee of the Whole, the President shall appoint the member who shall take the Chair.

6. He shall propound all questions in the order they are moved, unless the subsequent motion be previous in its nature, except that in filling blanks and in assigning times for the consideration of business, the largest sum and longest time shall be put first.

7. He shall consider a motion to adjourn always in order and it shall be decided without debate.

8. He shall put the previous question in the following form: "Shall the main question now be put?"

9. When two members rise at the same time, the President shall name the person to speak; but in all cases the person who shall first rise and address the Chair, shall speak first.

10. All committees, except such as the Council shall from time to time determine to elect, shall be appointed by the President, unless a majority of the members be in favor of a nomination by the Council, in which case the nominations shall be made by the Council.

11. Every question of order which shall be decided on appeal, shall be entered on the Journal of the Council with the decision thereon.

12. The President shall have the right to name a member to perform the duties of the Chair during his absence, but such substitution shall not extend beyond an adjournment.

Duties of subordinate Officers.

13. All messages from the Council to the House and to the Governor, shall be carried by the Clerk, unless when the Council shall otherwise decide.

14. In case the President shall be absent at the hour to which the Council was adjourned, the Council shall choose one of their members as President pro tem.
15. It shall be the duty of the Sergeant-at-arms to attend the Council during its sitting, announce all messages, preserve order in the Lobby of the Hall, and to execute all process issued by authority of the Council, and directed to him by the President.

Duties, rights and decorum of Members.

16. When any member is about to speak in debate or deliver any matter to the Council, he shall rise from his seat and respectfully address himself to Mr. President, and shall confine himself to the question under debate and avoid personalities; and no member shall interrupt the rights of another member in speaking or otherwise, transgress the rules of the Council, the President shall, or any member may call to order, in which case the member so called to order shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain, and the Council shall, if appealed to, decide the case, but without debate. If there be no appeal, the decision of the Chair shall be submitted to. If the decision be in favor of the member called to order, he shall be at liberty to proceed; if otherwise, and the case require it, he shall be liable to the censure of the Council, upon a vote of two thirds of the members.
18. If any member be called to order for words spoken in debate, the person calling him to order shall repeat the words excepted to, and they shall be taken down in writing at the Clerk's table, and no member shall be heard to answer, or be subject to the censure of the Council for words spoken in debate, if any other member has spoken, or other business has intervened after the words excepted to, and before exceptions to them shall have been taken.
19. No member shall interrupt another while speaking, except to call to order, or to correct a mistake.
20. When a motion has been once made and carried in the affirmative or negative, it shall not be in order for any member who voted in the minority to move for a reconsideration thereof; but any member who voted with the majority may move to reconsider on the same or the succeeding day. A motion to reconsider shall not be postponed nor laid on the table without a time certain assigned for its further consideration. When a motion for reconsideration has been decided, that vote shall not be reconsidered.

21. No member shall be permitted to stand up to the interruption of another, while any member is speaking, or other persons be permitted to stand in the alleys during the session of the Council.

22. When the lobby of the Council shall be ordered to be cleared, the matter which may occasion such order shall be kept secret by each member until the Council shall order such injunction of secrecy to be taken off.

23. When any member shall be guilty of a breach of any of the rules and orders of the Council, and the Council has determined he has so transgressed, he shall not be allowed to vote or speak, unless by way of excuse for the same, until he has made satisfaction.

24. No member shall be permitted to vote on any question when his personal right, distinct from public interest, is immediately concerned.

25. Every member who shall be in the Council when a question is put, when he is not excluded by interest, shall give his vote, unless the Council, for special reasons, shall excuse him; and when the yeas and nays are ordered, no member shall leave his seat until the vote is declared. In all elections by the Council, or in joint ballot of the two Houses, no member shall leave his seat, after nomination, before a return of the Council is had.

Order in proceedings and debates.

26. After the roll is called and the journal read, business shall be disposed of in the following order:

Petitions, memorials, and remonstrances.

Reports from Standing committees.

Reports from Select committees.

Petitions and memorials.
Second reading of bills &c.
Engrossed bills read a third time.
Bills, reports and other business lying on the Table.
Bills and other business from the House.
Other business of the Council.
The order of the day.

27. The President shall upon each day assume to the Council the business in order, agreeably to the preceding rule, and no business shall be taken up or considered until the class to which it belongs shall be declared to be in order: but reports from the Governor may be read at any time.

28. Every motion shall be reduced to writing, if required by the President or by any member.

29. When a question is taken by yeas and nays, or a call of the Council is made, the names of the members shall be called alphabetically.

30. A motion to non-concur, except upon verbal messages, shall not be in order; but in all other cases of concurrent action, the Chair shall state the question affirmatively- "Will the Council concur?"

31. No new motions or propositions shall be admitted under color of amendment, as a substitute for the motion or question under debate.

32. A motion to divide out being lost, shall preclude neither amendments nor a motion to divide out and insert.

33. After a motion or order is stated or read by the President and seconded, it shall be deemed to be in the possession of the Council, and shall be disposed of by vote of the Council. Any motion or order may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before the decision or amendment

34. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received but-

1- To adjourn.
2- To lay on the table,
3- To the previous question,
4- To commit,
5- To amend,
6- To postpone to a certain day,
7- To postpone indefinitely,

Which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are arranged.

35. The unfinished business in which the Council was engaged at the time of the last adjournment, shall have preference in the order of the day, and shall continue to be among the orders of the day for each succeeding day until disposed of, and no motion or other business shall be received, without special leave of the Council, until the former is disposed of.

36. No rule or order of the Council shall be altered or repealed, nor shall any new standing rule or order be adopted, unless one day's previous notice thereof be given in each case, and such notice be entered on the journal

37. When a vote having been declared by the President is doubted, the members for and against the question, when called on by the President, shall rise and stand till they are counted and the vote made certain, without any further debate; but a call for the yeas and nays shall be in order at any time before such vote is made certain and declared.

38. A member who is absent from his seat when a vote is taken upon any question, shall not afterwards be allowed to vote on that question, except by consent of the Council.

39. All engrossed bills and resolves shall be committed to the Standing Committee on Engrossed Bills, to be strictly examined, and if found by them to be strictly engrossed, they shall so report to the Council, and the same shall pass to be enacted, without any further reading, unless on motion of any member, a majority of the Council shall be in favor of reading the same as engrossed.

Committees

40. The following shall be the Standing Committees of the Council, to consist of three members each:

A Committee on Elections.

(Bill) approved and signed "An Act to Subdivide the Judicial Districts of Washington Territory and providing Judges for holding Courts therein"
Although the County of Pierce which has no legal existence is embraced in the first Judicial District yet I do not regard this as a sufficient objection to the bill to warrant the withholding of my approval especially as this is remedied to some extent in the bill creating the County of Columbia I would suggest the propriety of an amendment however Substituting Columbia for Pierce in the Section referred to
